

Dear Birthmother,

We want to start off by saying thank you for taking the time to read our profile letter and get to know us a little bit. We cannot begin to imagine what you are experiencing or the feelings that you must be feeling at this time. We want you to know that we are praying for you and commend you for your decision to choose life for your child. We believe and feel strongly that adoption is a beautiful act of God's love for us and an act of selflessness. We have great respect for you and know that our prayers are with you as you continue with an adoption plan.

We are Garry and Jenna. We both grew up in a small town in Texas where life has brought us back to start a family. We love this town and community because we have many family members here and close friends that we can rely on and fellowship with. We met in jr. high where we became friends and then graduated high school together. Although we went all through school together, it wasn't until after we graduated that we began dating. We have now been married for six amazing years. We enjoy doing anything outdoors, playing with our two dogs, Zoe and Nova, spending time with family and friends, and starting new adventures. We knew as soon as we got married that we wanted to start a family and become parents. After a year of being unable to conceive we sought out treatments from a fertility specialist. After multiple failed fertility treatments we knew that God had a much bigger plan in store for us; for us to adopt a baby. Going through infertility has brought us closer as a couple and closer in our walk with God. We have a large network of close family and friends that are so excited for us to grow our family through adoption.

Jenna, my beautiful wife, is the most caring person I know. She is a Registered Nurse and has a heart of gold. She enjoys reading, decorating, being crafty, Pinterest projects, and cooking. She is gifted when it comes to refurbishing old furniture and giving it new life. There's not a room in the house where evidence of this skillset can't be found. When I see her interacting with nieces, nephews, and other children from church it makes me look forward to seeing her hold our child. No doubt in my mind that she will be a terrific mommy to our sweet baby.

Garry is the most hardworking, devoted man I have ever met. He is in Law Enforcement and continues to serve in the Army Reserves. He puts his whole heart in everything he does and will drop what ever he is doing to help somebody else in need. He enjoys playing sports, staying in shape, reading, and eating all the food I cook. He is humble, selfless, and supportive. I couldn't think of a better partner to walk through life with. Children and youth love Garry. He is able to make a connection with them instantly and I enjoy seeing him interact with them. Garry will make an amazing father. He will teach them, support them, and love them in all that they do.

We hope that you were able to learn a little about us through this letter and get a little glimpse into our lives. We have so much love to give to a child and look forward to being able to grow our family through adoption and share that love. We are praying for you as you make this decision of who will parent your child and we hope that we get that honor.

Garry & Jenna
