

We would like to begin with saying thank you for choosing life for your baby. Words cannot describe how grateful we are for your selfless act and taking the time to get to know and consider us. We can't imagine how difficult this decision has been to choose adoption for your baby, but appreciate the love you have for your baby that has lead you to this decision.

We are Josh and Ashley and have been together for 17 years and married for 10 of those years. We were high school sweethearts and come from big, and loving families. Both of us grew up in Christian homes and that is the foundation of our marriage. We have many nieces and nephews that are excited to play and welcome a baby into our family, as well as grandparents, aunts, and uncles to spoil and love on them. This child will be a true blessing to our family.

I would like to describe Josh; he is a kind, loving, funny, and patient man that puts others needs in front of his own. He enjoys spending time with family and friends (especially his many nieces and nephews), being outside, and watching sports. Josh strives to live his daily life in a manner that glorifies the Lord and his strength and courage is a rock in our marriage. Josh is often seen as the quiet type, however, once you get to know him, his words are true and full of meaning. I can't wait to see him as a father, because I just know he has so much love to give and will be the best dad to your child.

Ashley, is smart, funny, and loves her family and friends fiercely. She is always laughing and joking around, and her laughter is contagious with whoever is around. In her pastime, she enjoys reading, going to the movies, and spending time with her family and friends. She is a kid at heart and you can see it when she is playing with her nieces, nephews, and our friend's kids. Ashley is always willing to go above and beyond for those in need and once you become one of her friends, you will have a loyal friend for life. She makes those around her better and has been Gods greatest blessing to me. I couldn't ask for a better wife and future mom to your child.

We want you to know that if you choose us, we will love this child with all of our hearts. He or she will know where they came from and the sacrifice you made, so that they could have the life you dreamt of for them. We will raise our child in a loving, safe, and Godly home. Josh and I have always known that we wanted a family of our own, but unfortunately that hasn't been possible. Josh and I experienced a miscarriage early on in our marriage and were never able to get pregnant on our own. So we turned to fertility specialists that couldn't explain why we couldn't conceive. After many failed attempts at IVF, we prayed and knew all we wanted was a child to love, so we decided adoption was God's plan for us. We will be praying for you and your baby and for your heart to be content with the decision you are about to make.

Love-
Josh & Ashley
