

Dear Friend,

Love is patient, love is kind, it always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. Your love for your child is deep and filled with hope and we hope and pray that we can give that same kind of love to a child of our own someday.

Landon works in Alzheimer's care. He gives a voice and value to individuals who truly need him. He leads our family in the same way, with grace, patience, and passion for the ones he loves.

Erin is a teacher and was born to love. She has so much joy that overflows into the lives of her students, her friends, and her family. She is the best partner and will be a great mother.

Together we make a great team, and we hope you can feel our passion for adoption shine through. We are praying for peace over you as you make the decision of parenting or placing for adoption. Thank you so much for considering this brave choice.

A million thanks,

Landon and Erin
